A Lazy Liver

May be only a tired liver, or a starved liver. It would be a stupid as well as a savage thing to beat a weary or starved man because he lagged in his work. So in treating the lagging, torpid liver it is a great mistake to lash it with strong drastic drugs. A torpid liver is but an indication of an ill-nourished, enfeebled body whose organs are weary with overwork. Start with the stomach and allied organs of digestion and nutrition. Put them in working order and see how quickly your liver will become active. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery has made many marvelous cures of "liver trouble" by its wonderful control of the organs of digestion and nutrition. It restores the normal activity of the stomach, increases the secretions of the blood-making glands, cleanses the system from poisonous accumulations, and so relieves the liver of the burdens imposed upon it by the defection of other organs.

If you have bitter or bad taste in the morning, poor or variable appetite, coated tongue, foul breath, constipated or irregular bowels, feel weak, easily tired, dependent, frequent headaches, pain or distress, "small of back," snoring or distressed feeling in stomach, perhaps nausea, or "sour risings" in throat after eating, and kindred symptoms of weak stomach and torpid liver, no medicine will relieve you so quickly as Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. Perhaps only a part of the above symptoms will be present at one time and yet point to torpid liver or biliousness and weak stomach. Avoid all hot bread and sweets, griddle cakes and other indigestible food and take the "Golden Medical Discovery" regularly and stick to its use until you are vigorous and strong.

The "Discovery" is non-secret, non-alcoholic, is a glyceric extract of active medicinal roots with a full list of its ingredients printed on each bottle-wrapper and attested under oath. Its ingredients are endorsed and extolled by the most eminent medical writers of the age and are recommended to cure the diseases for which it is advised.

Don't accept a substitute of unknown composition for this non-secret MEDICINE OF KNOWN COMPOSITION.

TRAGIC END OF PLEASURE TRIP

Lovable Young Woman Knocked from Cabin Top and Drowns. Body Recovered.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) ELIZABETH CITY, N. C., August 14.—Last night about 11 o'clock while a sailing party was returning to the city on a launch, the little craft was rammed by a sloop, throwing a young woman into the river and drowning her, and injuring several others. The young woman was Bessie Webb, aged nineteen, of this city. She was sitting on the cabin of the launch and was struck how on by the sloop, the boy-spirit of the launch passing over the launch's cabin where she sat. The young men on each side of her received serious injuries.

No one saw the young woman disappear, but it is supposed that she became impaled on the bowsprit, carried across the cabin of the launch and dropped into the river.

Searching parties have continuously dragged the river for her body all day, and at 6 o'clock this evening were successful.

The body was found near the channel of the river in plain view from the harbor and was at once brought ashore where Coroner Pearson pronounced death by accidental drowning.

The young lady was of lovable character and loved by all who knew her.

Two North Carolinians Among Those Hurt in Accident Near Exposition Gate.

NORFOLK, VA., August 14.—Four persons were injured and several scores other exposition-bound passengers had narrow escapes when a crowded trailer electric car on the Atlantic Terminal division of the Norfolk and Portsmouth traction lines jumped a track near the Ninety-ninth Street entrance at the Jamestown Exposition to-day years ago, and he is at this time chairman of the Board of Supervisors in the Western District. There were three applicants for the two districts, applicants being W. E. Beverley, one of the editors of the Clintwood Times, and John L. Rasmick, a farmer living some five or six miles east of Clintwood. The fight made by the friends of each of the five applicants was very warm, each had a strong following and the friends of the three applicants not appointed are feeling very much hurt over being defeated.

NEWPORT NEWS, VA., August 14.—Fred Gutierrez, the Phoebe man who stabbed Frank Walsh, a fireman of the battleship Maine, to death, and wounded two other members of the Maine's crew, several weeks ago, has sold his only possessions, a pair of horses, in order to raise money, which to pay an attorney to defend him. No Tidings From Clyde.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) CHATHAM, VA., August 14.—Nothing has been heard from missing Editor L. P. Clyde, who left his home here nearly three weeks ago. All of the property left in his printing office has been levied upon, and will fall far short of offsetting the numerous unpaid bills he left behind. Two, and possibly more, notes amounting to nearly three hundred dollars, endorsed by several business men of this place, are held by the local banks. The furniture in his home had not been paid for, and his wife and infant, less than one year old, were left penniless.

What They Are Unknown, but Counsel for Lecturer Asks Continuance.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) ASHEVILLE, N. C., August 13.—Sensational evidence was promised in the hearing before Judge Pritchard in the United States Circuit Court here to-day in the injunction suit filed Saturday by Clarence B. Strouse against the Hendersonville Auditorium Company, of Hendersonville, to forbid its officers carrying out its alleged purpose of preventing him from repeating his Chautauqua series in the auditorium, and but for the fact his attorneys were so taken by surprise by the sensational nature of the charges made against him in the affidavits filed by the defendants that they were unable to make answer without a consultation with their client, the charges would have been made public to-day.
